SEC REPORTING

SEC EXPERT

Following the item-by-item workflow of the filing preparation process, SEC Expert: Domestic Filers delivers comprehensive SEC reporting guidance, along with frequent updates to keep on top of the latest SEC, FASB, IASB, AICPA and PCAOB developments affecting your filings.

Our team of authors and editors provides detailed analysis of relevant rules and regulations as well as expert commentary in the form of: tips, notes, reminders, security, calculations, cautions, and observations identified in text boxes to speed research. You'll also get detailed checklists, sample disclosures taken from actual SEC filings, and robust linking to primary source materials, additional sample and model language, editorial analysis, and SEC Filings.

GAAP AND FASB CODIFICATION

GAAP REPORTER

Organized according to the structure of the FASB Codification, GAAP Reporter provides detailed guidance in the form of Explanations for each section. These expert-authored Explanations make the Codification easier to understand by restating the language in the Codification in clear, straightforward terms and providing professional insights, expertise, and illustrations on how to apply the guidance in practice.

You'll also get time-saving practice aids, including detailed annual and interim disclosure checklists, client letters, and memoranda. GAAP Reporter also provides access to the full text of the Codification, and for each section of the Codification brings together any Accounting Standards Updates, Prior Versions of the Codification, and related Original standards related to that section.

ACCOUNTING & FINANCIAL REPORTING: UPDATES AND ADDITIONAL COVERAGE

STANDARDS TRACKER

Standards Tracker allows you to quickly see any recent standard setting or regulatory activity (from FASB, GASB, IASB, SEC, AICPA, PCAOB and the Treasury) that may impact your upcoming financial reports and filings, without having to scroll through all regulations just to see what is new. You can sort and filter your results by date range, changes containing a keyword, final vs. proposed, date range, and effective date. The resulting chart lists the issuing body, document and summary, status, date issued, and date effective, and any SEC forms or items affected. Plus, your results link directly to the relevant pronouncements and standards, or to additional relevant WG&L editorial analysis.
